BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

PREFACE.

THE present volume is intended as a contribution to what may be justly considered a not unimportant department of our national song literature — the Nursery Rhymes namely, which seem appointed, by tacit and universal consent, to be "said or sung," and to be listened to, with unwearied interest and appreciation, in those great National Institutions the British Nursery and Home School-room. To all who are interested in the selection of books for children the book is now offered by the Publishers, with the hope that it may gain general and extended approbation. Especial pains have been taken to secure the suffrage of that still larger public, in petticoats and knicker-bockers, whom a genial English writer of the last century, who loved children, and spoke and wrote of them with infinite tenderness and affection, describes as "masters in all the learning on the other side of eight years old."

If it be true—as asserted by one of the greatest of English critics and authors—that Sir Roger de Coverley and Mr. Spectator are more real than nine-tenths of the heroes of the last century, and that almost the only autobiography to be received entirely without distrust and disbelief is that of one ROBINSON CRUSOE, Mariner, of York—then surely those important personages, JACK and JILL, HUMPTY DUMPTY, and my LADY WIND, are real and distinct entities in the mind of every little child whose nursery education has not been entirely and unwarrantably neglected; and therefore it has seemed good to the Publishers to present to the children of the present day the adventures of those heroes, embellished with whatever pictorial illustration, careful selection, musical accompaniment, and the advantages of artistic typography and detail can contribute, to render them more acceptable to all English children.

In the arrangement of the musical portion of the volume, especial care has been taken by MR. ELLIOTT to keep the songs strictly within the capacity of children's execution, and the compass of children's voices. In his own family he has found a young jury ready to test the various tunes, and has composed only such melodies as were likely to meet with prompt acceptance, and be easily remembered.

The pictorial illustrations of the book have been designed under the superintendence of, and engraved by, the BROTHERS DALZIEL.

Among the old favourites a few new aspirants to popularity will be found; but it is hoped that their presence will be considered an additional attraction, and in no way lessen the pretensions of the present volume to be considered a compendium of National Nursery Rhymes.

DALZIELS' FINE ART BOOKS.

One Guinea each, elaborate cloth gilt.

BIRKET FOSTER'S
PICTURES OF ENGLISH LANDSCAPE.

ENGRAVED BY DALZIEL BROTHERS.

WITH PICTURES IN WORDS BY TOM TAYLOR.

"Here is a Birket Foster 'Gallery' of thirty pictures for a guinea—pictures so carefully finished that they would be graceful ornaments were they cut out of the book and framed."—Examiner.

"Messrs. Dalziel have reproduced the drawings with a combined freedom and force of effect, which, as Mr. Taylor observes, gives them the character and force of etching."—Times.

"Mr. Taylor's verses are very pleasing, and quite reach Longfellow's level."—Saturday Review.

"One can hardly look at these drawings without fancying a recognition of the localities that have given the themes; hence much of their charm."—Athenæum.

"As to the execution of these drawings, we think they display all Mr. Foster's well-known excellence. Nothing can be more graceful or refined, yet the strength and vigour of the outlines and the breadth of the general effect are remarkable. We quite agree with a remark of Mr. Tom Taylor's in the preface—'It is one of the mysteries of Mr. Foster's art how he manages to conciliate such finish with such breadth of effect.'"—Globe.

"The Brothers Dalziel, to whom was entrusted the task of engraving Mr. Foster's pictures, have shown themselves to be second only to the artist himself in fidelity of execution, and in the requisite feeling for the preservation of true harmony."—Morning Post.

"Confining ourselves to the share the Messrs. Dalziel have had in this work, we gladly endorse all that has been said in their praise, and add our thanks for the powerful example set to their brother engravers by reproducing every line, tint, and contour of the artist's work."—Athenæum.
